

Questions To Ask Your Prospective Web Designer

1. Did you have a chance to look over the material I sent to you? Was there anything in particular that stood out?
2. Who are the people on your team you might see as a good fit for working on this project?
3. Are my project deadlines for concept and completion realistic?
4. Should I anticipate any expected overages beyond your initial estimate?

www.118group.com

508-591-0405

team@118group.com

9. Is my website going to be completely custom or will you be applying some type of theme?

10. What is your creative process like?

11. If you provide a design that we're generally unhappy with, how do you handle it?

12. After I receive my first concept, how many rounds of revisions will you provide to me and how long will it take between each round of revisions?

www.118group.com

508-591-0405

team@118group.com

13. What type of quality control or testing process do you have between the time you will design the site and the time you will launch it?

14. Do you host websites or would we have to host it?

15. If I call you with questions after the project, what do you consider billable? What is your hourly rate?

16. Are there any pieces of my projects which will be handled by outside freelancers or contractors?

www.118group.com

508-591-0405

team@118group.com

17. After we launch, who will be responsible for website changes and how long would they typically take?

18. Will you give me all the passwords necessary for my website, including the database file system, FTP, admin login, etc.?

19. Have you recently fired a client or suggested they go somewhere else? If so, why?

www.118group.com

508-591-0405

team@118group.com